Capitol PhotoInteractive Selected

Mayor James R. Miron today announced that Capitol PhotoInteractive has been selected to create the Town of Stratford's new Economic Development Guide.

Positioned to showcase a business-friendly community reaping the benefits of both Fairfield and New Haven counties, Stratford's new Economic Development Guide is being designed to encourage and attract businesses to locate and grow in Town.

"Stratford's Economic Development Commission developed a careful selection process, received more than 16 responses to the Request for Proposal and ultimately selected Regina Madwed, owner of Capitol PhotoInteractive, 1300 Post Road, Fairfield to execute the guide," said Mayor Miron. "I am confident the Capitol PhotoInteractive team of Regina, Don Heymann and Ellen Rothwax will produce an effective, innovative guide that illustrates how the Town supports its business community."

Capitol PhotoInteractive is a full service professional photography and digital studio founded in Bridgeport, Connecticut in 1976 by the late Steven Madwed. Capitol offers expertise in product and industrial photography, professional portrait packages, digital media creation, web design and print and multimedia presentation development. For more information on the products and services provided by Capitol Photo Interactive, visit www.capitolphotointeractive.com or contact the studio at 203-255-4002.

Flying Dish supports the Audubon Society

Thursday, Nov. 6 has been designated as Connecticut Audubon Society night at Fair-field's Flying Dish restaurant. On this special evening, the Flying Dish restaurant will generously donate 15% of net proceeds to the Connecticut Audubon Society's Center at Fairfield and Birdcraft Museum. There will be two seatings 6 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. and patrons are asked to call in advance for reserved seating.

"Mita Spilo's support of Connecticut Audubon Society exemplifies her philanthropic nature. We are delighted that she chose to support our organization through this fundraising effort. Her commitment to providing quality all natural ingredients supports our commitment to conserve and protect our environment. We're both concerned about organic healthy living styles for ourselves and for our environment," states Connecticut Audubon Society Director of Fairfield Operations, Nelson North.

Flying Dish restaurant is located at 1125 Post Road (Patriot Plaza) in Fairfield. Ample parking is located behind the Shell gas station. For reservations please call The Flying Dish at 203-259-3500.

The Connecticut Audubon Society website www.ctaudubon.org offers additional information on statewide events and facilities.
